Mr. Breckinridge, it appears, arrived here about a week ago, accompanied by another gentleman, and took passage this morning in the Canada for England. It appears that the authorities in Boston were aware of the fact of Mr. Breckinridge being here, and the Attorney General of Boston sent a notice to the captain of the Canada, previous to bis sailing from Boston, forbidding him taking Breckinridge on board. We learn that Capt. Muir very quietly replied that he was not to know who his passengers were; and he would like to see any passenger taken out of his ship, while that Burnside's Expedition was off Hatteras on Tuesday under the protection of the British flag. It is also stated that a similar notice was served on the captain of the Canada here, but we are informed that no notice was taken of it, and Mr. Breckinridge is now on board the steamship en route for Europe.

THE INDIAN TREATIES IN CONGRESS .- Congress is understood to have made a large appropriation out of the Confederate Treasury to comply in part with treasty stipulations made with the Indian tribes. These treaties are as yet undivulged. They are understood to comprise the Creeks, the Choctaws and Chickasaws, the Seminoles, the Cherokees, the Osages, the Quapaws, the Senecas and Shawnees, the Camanches and the Resome Indians.
